WORKSHOPS: Clinical Applications of the MMPI/MMPI-2 (Domestic)

For many years I have conducted regional Workshops on Clinical Applications of the MMPI. Meetings are held in cities throughout the United States in order to make the programs accessible to professional psychologists. Past Clinical Applications programs are too numerous to be listed here. Between 1,000 and 1,500 psychologists enroll in these programs annually. Some cities include:

Atlanta, Georgia

Austin, Texas

Beachwood, Ohio

Boston, Massachusetts

Cape Cod, Massachusetts

Chapel Hill, N Carolina

Charleston, S Carolina

Chicago, Illinois

Cincinnati, Ohio

Clearwater, Florida

Cleveland, Ohio

Colorado Springs, Colorado

Columbus, Ohio

Dallas, Texas

Denver, Colorado

COMMUNITY SERVICE

Developed and supervised a Crisis Intervention Program for the Metropolitan Airport as part of their Disaster Response Program. This is a non-paid community volunteer activity. As a function of this program we offered free psychological counseling to family members of the Galaxy Air Disaster in Reno in 1985.

Provided volunteer crisis intervention services for the Minneapolis - St. Paul Airport Police: 1) for a hostage following the takeover of the Burlington Northern Air Cargo Facility at the request of the Minneapolis - St. Paul Metropolitan Police Chief; 2) for an airline passenger having an extreme panic disorder on a commercial flight.

Organized, provided counseling therapy, and supervised a Crisis Intervention Disaster Response Program for Northwest Airlines following the crash of flight 255 in Detroit in August, 1987. This program was organized and implemented in six cities in the United States the day following the crash and continued for about 5 weeks. It involved providing emergency mental health services for over 1,000 persons.

Developed and supervised a Stress Management Program for Northwest Airlines Flight Attendants. Organized, provided counseling services, and supervised the operation of a disaster response crisis intervention program following an airline accident of Aloha Airlines in Honolulu, Hawaii in 1988.

Provided an in-service training program for Metropolitan Fire and Rescue Personnel. This program was devoted to discussion of stress management techniques for disaster workers following air disasters. October, 1987.

Appeared on KUOM Radio "Talking Sense" concerning psychological response to airline disasters. September 16, 1987.

Conducted a Site Visit for Human Services, Inc. (Washington County Mental Health Center) to aid them in preparing for American Psychological Association Accreditation.
