Women's Center | Office for Equity and Diversity

The Mullen/Spector/Truax Women's Leadership Award was established in 1997 to honor Patricia Mullen, Janet Spector, and Anne Truax for their contributions to the women at the University of Minnesota. The award is given annually to a women faculty or staff member at the University who has made outstanding contributions to women's leadership development. This award is intended not only for women who are leaders, but for women who have developed leadership in others. University women faculty or staff members. A $1000 honorarium will be given to the recipient's department to be used by the winner in support of her professional development programs and activities.

Nominees will be evaluated on the basis of materials documenting their outstanding contributions to women's leadership development in terms of impact, sustainability, comprehensiveness, distinguished excellence, and leadership empowerment. The materials should provide specific evidence of excellence in each of these areas.

Only U of M, Twin Cities faculty, staff, or students may make nominations. Individuals nominated, but not selected may be re-nominated for subsequent years.

Nominations should include the following items:

- One letter of nomination (maximum 3 pages)
- Two letters of support
- Current resumé or curriculum vita
