(U) ~~(S)~~ SSA [redacted] held a two-hour panel on 03/29/2003, for all FBI and CITF interviewing agents. An invitation was extended to DHS personnel but none attended. The panel included an FBI and CITF interviewer who were well-experienced in these types of interviews. In addition, two language specialists, who spoke different languages, were present on the panel. The panel was presented a series of questions designed to elicit strategies and techniques for what works and doesn't work with different types of detainees. The questions were overly broad and designed to stimulate discussion among the panelists. Each panelist was asked to provide insight for each question. A question and answer session followed the panel discussion.

SUMMARY OF CONSULTATIONS

~~(S)~~-(U) Requests for interview assistance are initiated by the various interview teams. Teams usually requesting assistance are those teams currently working on Special Projects. Teams involved in Leads or Transfer interviews rarely seek interview assistance for various valid reasons related to the nature of the interview. The special projects are long-term in nature with multiple interviews occurring every week. Special Projects can be both FBI/CITF and DHS/CTC. Sometimes the Special Projects can overlap agencies. Some of the Special Projects can only be contacted with approval from DHS. The following teams have requested and been provided ongoing interview strategy assistance:
